Chris Lake, author of local history accounts The Story of Winterskloof and Sweetwaters and the co-authored Story of Hilton, was not idle during Lockdown. Through examinations of the Howick Museum & Library archives Chris found contributions from residents who have been acknowledged in this book which aims to convey the 'bigger picture' of Howick's beginnings.

This book covers a period of around 150-years, the author's view being that anything after the 1990's cannot really be regarded as historical.

CO-CREATING WELLNESS - As It Should Be

IMAGINE A WORLD WHERE WE FEEL TRULY ALIVE.
YOU CAN FIND IT AT THE HOUSE@9.

We are conditioned to believe that "I am ok" is all we can hope to arrive at. The House@9 offers you an alternative: integrated wellness that goes beyond the symptoms to determine and dissolve the root cause, giving you the power to thrive.

House@9 is home to a team of health and wellness practitioners, therapists and teachers. It is a space to reconnect with yourself by sharing in healing, exploration and growth—physically, mentally and emotionally.
